469 Political Action Committee: 2010 Election Edition

Phil McNally, Business Manager

Three Years Ago...

When the 469 Political Action Committee (469 PAC) adopted a new set of goals and a more defined vision three years ago, we set out to become more relevant and effective in Arizona politics. I am happy to announce our goals have begun to be realized!

What was a handful of volunteers has grown into a small army of more than 250 Pipe Trades volunteers from across the state. This has allowed the 469 PAC to play a much larger role in Arizona politics. PAC 469 events have been held in cities across the state, from Flagstaff to Tucson, to Prescott and Sahuarita. The increased number of volunteers has allowed the PAC to assist more candidates who are committed to the goals and values of 469. Evidence of our involvement was seen during the Primary Elections in August where 94 percent of 469-endorsed candidates were successful in their campaigns!

Our Work is Not Yet Done

The proof is in the numbers – in mid-September, 85 volunteers participated in the 469's "BIG" Day of Action, making it the largest 469 PAC event in history. Despite the PAC's growth, we are far from finished. The 469 PAC will continue to move forward and cover new ground. I encourage each and every member to find out what the PAC is all about. We have several upcoming events – step up and see what so many of your brothers and sisters have already seen.

Remember to vote on Nov. 2 and have a good fall season!

PAC Volunteers Making a Difference in Southern Arizona

469 volunteers braved the August heat in Tucson to post signs for our PAC-endorsed candidates. Twelve 469 members from Tucson were able to post more than 50 signs in one morning. Thanks again to all of our dedicated volunteers who make these events possible. You are the pulse of the PAC!

469 BBQ – Bringing People Together For Change!

The Pima Democratic Party / Arizona Pipe Trades 469 Unity Picnic brought out 469 volunteers, as well as community members and a number of our endorsed Pima candidates. More than 80 people mingled in the shade at Himmel Park in Tucson enjoying a 469 BBQ lunch. A special thanks goes out to the 469-endorsed candidates, Tucson City Council members and members of the Arizona Legislature who took time out of their busy schedules to attend the picnic.

2010 Statewide 469-Endorsed Candidates

After mailing questionnaires to more than 300 candidates statewide and interviewing more than a dozen candidates, the 469 PAC is proud to announce its 2010 General Election endorsed candidates! All of the people listed below are pro-469 candidates who have committed to the values and goals of the 469:

Statewide and Federal elections

Terry Goddard - Governor

"As Arizona's governor, your number one priority should be finding ways to grow and attract jobs to get Arizonans working again... build Arizona and attract investment."

Christopher Deschene - Secretary of State

"As a former union welder who is also the son of a boilermaker, brother of a steelworker, and member of a nation that consistently supports union efforts, I am committed to do all that I can...to help strengthen labor's movement."

Felecia Rotellini - Attorney General

"I will make sure my office gets results for working families...focus on what matters to Pipe Trades members and all Arizonans: keeping people safe in their homes, on the streets, and in their dealings with business and government."

Andrei Cherny - State Treasurer

"I have worked for two labor unions and been a member of two labor unions. I am running for Arizona State Treasurer in order to be a champion for working people in state government; to make sure... we have a government that works its hardest for those who are working their hardest."

Ann Kirkpatrick - Congressional District 1

"I support and encourage renewable energy sources like wind and solar, which will improve our national security by reducing our dependence on foreign oil, lower energy costs, and create thousands of new, good-paying jobs right here in Arizona."

John Thrasher - Congressional District 2

"If elected I will work hard to create a culture that expects fairness and creates jobs for Arizonans. I would encourage the work of public and private partnerships whose goal is to create jobs in Arizona."

Jon Hulburt - Congressional District 3

"To get Arizonans back to work in good-paying jobs, we must diversify our economy by making Arizona a growth area for tomorrow's green-energy industries – like solar and wind power – and the technologies and jobs that accompany them."

Ed Pastor - Congressional District 4

"We must focus on creating quality jobs and maintaining domestic production of our nation's vital needs, while providing quality education to prepare our children to thrive in global economy."

Harry Mitchell - Congressional District 5

"The most important issue we face as a state and as a nation is strengthening our economy and creating jobs... I am committed to getting our economy moving again..."

Raul Grijalva - Congressional District 7

"The future of America deserves a cleaner, smarter energy agenda that ensures lowered energy costs, reduced global warming and creates hundreds of thousands of green jobs."

Gabrielle Giffords - Congressional District 8

"Pipe Trades 469 members are some of the best trained and most highly skilled, productive craftsman available... I am confident in recommending that companies become signatory contractors with the union and encourage this practice on federally-funded projects."

Rodney Glassman - US Senate

"As a U.S. Senator I would articulate the benefit of labor representation such as strong wages, access to training, and advocates to assist in receiving healthcare."

David Bradley - Arizona Corporation Commission

"...It is important that the education system/clean energy industry/utilities industry/labor play a vibrant role in the training of workers who are prepared for the 21st century so that they have the skills to be prepared to be in place to bid on state projects."

League of Cities and Towns

For the first time, the Arizona Pipe Trades 469 participated in the annual Arizona League of Cities and Towns conference. This gathering of elected and appointed city officials was well attended and extremely informative for the PAC. The three-day conference allowed 469 leadership to meet with city managers, mayors and council members from cities around the state including Page, Kingman and Glendale just to name a few of the municipalities in attendance. Members of the 469 leadership were able to educate city officials about the Arizona Pipe Trades 469 and the positive effect 469 can have on communities. The Arizona Pipe Trades plans to play a larger role at the municipal level so we can prepare for potential public projects as far in advance as possible, giving 469 more of an edge in putting members to work.

Business Manager Phil McNally receiving recognition for the 469's participation in the League of Cities and Towns Conference from Mayor of Chandler and League Past-President Boyd Dunn.

"The conference was very useful. It allowed us to meet with many city officials from around the state in a short period of time. Building relationships with more and more municipalities around the state will continue to be a priority."

“BIG” Day of Action

a Huge Success...

Thanks to Dedicated 469 Volunteers!

The Arizona Pipe Trades 469 PAC hosted the first-ever “BIG” Day of Action at the Arizona Pipe Trades 469 Hall. Almost 100 volunteers came out to support four of our PAC-endorsed candidates running for office in Arizona. Journeymen, apprentices, retirees and family members worked together with candidates and campaign staff throughout the day to make a difference in the upcoming November elections.

Once the volunteers finished posting signs and knocking on doors, they reconvened at the 469 Hall for a BBQ lunch, where candidates Rodney Glassman, Felecia Rotellini and Ruben Gallego spoke and answered questions from the volunteers.

HUGE SUCCESS!!

All of 469’s hard work paid off and resulted in the largest volunteer turnout in 469 PAC history! Apprentices came out in force, almost 50 strong – who alongside journeymen, retirees and family members, posted nearly 200 campaign signs and knocked on nearly 1,000 doors in one morning.

We look forward to making the next “BIG” Day of Action even BIGGER!!!

Volunteers Out in Record Numbers to Support PAC-Endorsed Candidates

An Early Saturday Morning

Business Manager Phil McNally welcomed volunteers to the 469 Hall bright and early. He thanked them for participating and spoke about the importance of volunteering for candidates who – if elected – will work to make a difference in the lives of working families. PAC-endorsed candidates Felecia Rotellini (Attorney General) and Rodney Glassman (US Senate) worked alongside PAC members and staff from the Terry Goddard (Governor) and Jon Hulburd (Congressional District 3) campaigns to organize volunteers. The volunteers quickly set out to walk neighborhoods and pound signs, but not before taking a group picture in the new orange PAC shirts.

Volunteers at the “BIG” Day of Action create a huge “469” to commemorate the day.

“I want to go to Washington to fight for our community and bring more jobs back to the Valley. We need a representative with maturity to lead during these troubled times. I am grateful to local 469 for all the help they provided me on their “BIG” Day of Action.”

Jon Hulburd

Candidate for Congressional District 3

“It was a pleasure of mine to attend the “BIG” Day of Action! Seeing so many men and women excited about bringing change to Arizona is what motivates candidates like me to run. Thank you local 469 for all your help!”

Felecia Rotellini

Candidate for Arizona Attorney General

“Arizona needs a U.S. Senator who is committed to bringing jobs to Arizona and focusing on our economy. The support of Local 469 and its membership is invaluable in getting our message across the state that after 28 years in Washington, D.C. it is time for us to retire John McCain and elect a U.S. Senator that represents the future. Jobs, education, and securing our border are my top priorities because they are Arizona’s priorities!”

Rodney Glassman

Candidate for U.S. Senate

“Thank you for what you have done on the job and for my campaign. Recovering lost jobs is my number one priority. Together, we can turn our state around, and make Arizona work again!”
